Centex Homes Expands Regional Office in Suffolk

SUFFOLK, VA., October 19, 2006 — Centex Homes, the nations 5th largest home builder, is pleased to announce the official grand opening and ribbon cutting at 10:00am on Thursday, October 19th, for the expansion of their Hampton Roads office, located at Bridgeway Technology Center I in Suffolk, VA. Centex will now occupy 16,000 square-feet of office space that includes a number of divisions servicing the Hampton Roads region: Centex Construction, CTX Mortgage, and Centex Title and Insurance. Centex's newly expanded office features a showroom to assist new homeowners in selecting their personal cabinets, countertops, fixtures and other items to make their homes unique. Centex will now have 69 employees in Suffolk, and more than 15,000 nationwide.

“In addition to building quality housing in our community, we are equally pleased that Centex is locating their regional offices in our city,” said Suffolk Mayor Linda Johnson.

Centex Homes currently has six community developments in Hampton Roads, including Mansfield Farms in Suffolk. Mansfield Farms is a serene, single-family home community located on Nansemond Parkway, next to Nansemond River High School.
