New Coffee House Opens in Suffolk

On Saturday, May 8, 2010 at 12:00 p.m., Healing Time Café, located at 3235 Bridge Road in the Creekside Village Shopping Center, will hold a Grand Opening for their new inspirational coffee shop. Councilmember Robert Barclay will host the celebration which will be open to the public.

Along with the grand opening, the day will also feature a Spring Fling where visitors can enjoy food, entertainment, children's activities and lot of fun. The Spring Fling is a fundraiser for the Driver Volunteer Fire Department, which is put on by the business owners of the Creekside Village Shopping Center.

"We are very excited to open our first store," says owner Toney Saunders. "Our goal is to provide inspirational customer service in a comfortable setting. We are committed to meeting the needs of our customers while using top quality ingredients. We also believe in fast, consistent drink preparation."

Healing Time Café serves organic coffees, espresso-based beverages such as lattes and cappuccinos, flavored coffees, teas, smoothies and bakery items such as gourmet muffins and pastries. The café will also serve a variety of delicious sandwiches as well as provide outside catering.

According to Suffolk Mayor Linda T. Johnson, "we are extremely pleased to welcome Healing Time Café as the newest tenant within this new shopping center. This is a great location for people to gather and enjoy a specialty coffee while browsing all the unique gifts the store has to offer.”

Hours of operation are Monday – Thursday 7:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m. and Saturdays from 7:00 a.m. – 10:00 p.m. For further information visit their website at www.healingtimecafe.com.
