S. J. Moore Interiors, Inc. to hold Grand Opening Ceremony

On Saturday, March 21, 2009 from 10:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. S. J. Moore Interiors, Inc. will hold a Grand Opening for its new showroom, located at 201 Prentis Street in Downtown Suffolk across from the Historic Train Station.

S. J. Moore Interiors, Inc. provides commercial and residential interior decoration services. The new showroom will sell window and upholstery fabrics, wall coverings and antiques. They also offer a wide variety of fabrics made from sustainable materials, organically grown fibers and recycled textiles.

“I am excited about expanding into Downtown Suffolk”, states Stephanie Moore, owner of S. J. Moore Interiors, Inc. “The intention of my company is to meet my client’s individual needs, whether it be budgetary or practical, while maintaining a look that is appealing.”

“I think it is great that S. J. Moore Interiors, Inc. is looking to incorporate affordable and eco-friendly designs at their new showroom,” said Mayor Linda Johnson. “They are targeting a niche that will serve such a wide spectrum of individuals. I welcome S. J. Moore Interiors, Inc. to Suffolk and look forward to a long-lasting business relationship.”

Operation hours are Monday – Saturday from 10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. and by appointment.
